Foreword

It is with a feeling of regret that we announce this closing out sale, for the cattle comprising the Two Hills Short Horn herd are more desirable and producing more satisfactory, than ever before in its history.

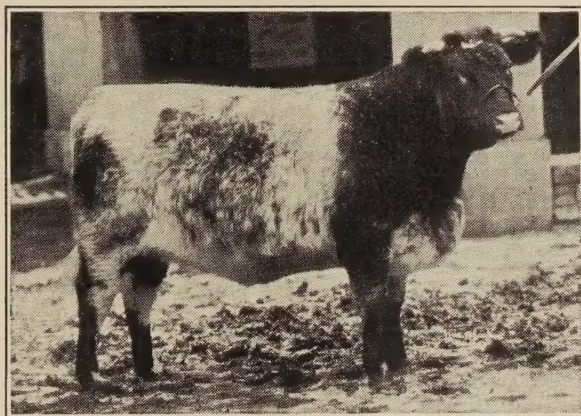

As Two Hills Farm is for sale, and Arthur R. Peggs, present manager, has leased another farm, it is necessary that we offer to the public this wonderful herd of straight Scotch bred Short Horn cattle, and there will be nothing reserved, and every animal will sell regardless of price.

This herd comprises 22 head of the choicest Scotch Tribes, and individuals of the George A. Ball, of Ball Bros. of Muncie, Indiana, who was the original founder of the Two Hills herd. The present manager has been connected with this herd since it was originated 12 years ago. We realize fully that conditions are far more favorable for buying than for selling and we do not expect high prices. We hope, however, that men who appreciate strong ancestry, good individuality and dependable producing ability will buy these cattle, and we firmly believe that to them will come a full measure of success.

We invite all admirers of the breed to be with us on the day of the sale—Tuesday, February 12th.
